

Evaluation Systems

Pearson

In April 2006, National Evaluation Systems joined Pearson Education, the world's largest integrated education company. In July 2007, Pearson Education began a yearlong initiative to unify all of its businesses with one corporate logo and name: Pearson. The goal of this initiative is to bring together Pearson's educational products and services.

As part of this initiative, National Evaluation Systems is now the Evaluation Systems group of Pearson. The change to a new logo and a new corporate name will be phased in over the course of the upcoming year.

“Our name and logo are changing, but the way in which we work with you will remain the same.”
